Message from Founder's Desk

Aruna Diwakar,
Founder – President,
Kritagyata Trust

My desire to serve the needy on my own was the beginning of my dreams, that gave me restless days and sleepless nights. That's when I started realizing my own strength, and it was nothing but to be kind to others, each time, every time.

The dream of serving mankind was because of my decade long work experience, having worked in different capacities in various NGOs. The capacity to deliver for various social projects, had given me the required strength and the wings to fly.

Once someone asked Sri Ramakrishna Paramahansa, "How do you treat others?" and his reply was, "There are no others".

With this basic quote as my foundation, I set out to walk my path and there was no looking back. The rest just shaped up beautifully, My family was more than happy to see me succeed, friends and well-wishers gave me the required support and this led to the start of Kritagyata.

Kritagyata is an opportunity to serve the people, in return to everything I was fortunate to have received. My life has a meaning and I wish to spread the same meaning evenly across. My work experience has immensely contributed to turning my dream into reality.

Kritagyata is a humane seed, which will grow with every thought of kindness, The World deserves a better place to live in and my contribution to it is infinite.

Every drop of kindness, brings in peace within the World.
